This Week in ELA:

We focused on the sounds of long Ii and short Ii. We know rip is a short Ii word like "Pickles the Pig" but ripe is a long Ii word because the Ii "says its name" in the word. We also added they, boy, and out to the word wall. In writing workshop, we continued to write about something we know how to do. This week, we focused on hooking our reader with an introduction: "Have you ever made pancakes before? Let me teach you how!"

This Week in Math:

We talked about how the work we have been doing over the last few weeks of putting numbers together and using a plus sign is called adding. We also began the work of subtracting, or taking numbers away from the whole number. We use a minus sign to do this work. In this type of problem, we usually cross something out.   $4-3=1$

This Week in Social Studies:

We learned how our country has some important symbols of freedom. Some of these symbols are the bald eagle, U.S. flag, and the Statue of Liberty. See if your child can find the Great Seal on a dollar bill!
